THE TWO PLATFORMS.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the glorious national victory of 1868, which has brought peace, happiness and prosperity to us as a nation.

Resolved, That we wholly approve of the principles and policy of the Administration of General Grant, and we heartily endorse every sentiment contained in his inaugural address, and especially do hereby ratify and approve the late amendment proposed by Congress to the Constitution of the United States, and known as the fifteenth amendment.

Resolved, That we have confidence that the General Administration will wisely and firmly protect the interests and dignity of the nation in respect to our just claims against Great Britain, and that we endorse the action of the Senate in rejecting the Johnson-Clarendon treaty, known as the Alabama claims.

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with the struggling peoples of all nations in their efforts to attain universal freedom and the invaluable rights of man.

Resolved, That we confidently endorse the Administration of General John W. Geary as wise, economical and honest, and that it deserves, as it has received, the approval of the people of Pennsylvania, and we especially commend his uniform efforts to restrain the evils of special legislation.

Resolved, That in Hon. Henry W. Williams, our candidate for the Supreme Court, we present a learned, pure, and patriotic jurist, who will adorn the high position to which we purpose to elect him.

Resolved, That we reiterate and affirm our adherence to the doctrine of protection, as proclaimed in the ninth resolution of the platform adopted at the State Convention of March 7, 1866.

Resolved, That we endorse the ticket this day nominated, and pledge to it our hearty and cordial support.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this convention is hereby authorized to appoint a chairman of the State Central Committee, on the joint recommendation of the candidates of this day nominated, and that the State Central Committee shall consist during the coming campaign of the same number of delegates from each county as the last committee, and they shall be appointed by the Senatorial and Representative districts, except Allegheny, which shall have eight members.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

First. That the Federal Government is limited to the grants contained in the Federal Constitution; that the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers is dangerous to the stability of the Government and to the safety of the people; and the Democratic party will never consent that the State of Pennsylvania shall surrender her great right of local self-government.

Second, That the attempted ratification of the second fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution by the Radical members of the last Legislature, and their refusal to submit the same to a vote of the people, was a deliberate breach of their official duty, and an outrage upon every citizen of the State; and the resolution making such ratification should be promptly repealed, and the amendment submitted to the people, at the polls, for acceptance or rejection.

Third. That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is opposed to conferring upon the negro the right to vote, and we do emphatically deny that there is any right or power in Congress or elsewhere to impose negro suffrage upon the people of this State in opposition to their will.

Fourth. That reform in the administration of the Federal and State governments in the management of their financial affairs is imperatively demanded.

Fifth. That the movements now being made for the amelioration of the laboring man have our most cordial co-operation.

Sixth. That the legislation of the late Republican Congress outside of the Constitution; the disregard of the majority therein of the will of the people and the sanctity of the ballot-box, in the exclusion from their seats of Representatives clearly elected; the establishment of military government in States in the Union, and the overthrow of all civil government therein, are acts of tyranny and usurpation that tend directly to the destruction of all republican government, and the creation of the worst forms of despotism.

Seventh. That our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory must be gratefully remembered, and all guarantees given in their favor most faithfully carried into execution.

Eighth. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example of encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights.

Ninth. That the present internal revenue and taxing system of the General Government is grossly unjust, and means ought to be at once adopted to cause a modification thereof.

LEWIS' BOOK AND STATIONERY STORE,

A Telegraphic Mistake.

It was a beautiful day in the month of June, some two years ago, that Charles Fitzgerald kissed his sweet wife and bade her "good-bye," as the preface to a brief absence.

He had been married only a few months, and during that happy time had not been called away from home; but now business of an important nature demanded his attention, and he set out for Indianapolis at once.

With fond adieux and wishes for a safe journey and return, such as only love can call forth, and which upon this occasion shone from his wife's blue eyes like a bit of heaven itself, the young husband started for the Hudson railroad depot, and soon after was whirling along at a rapid rate on his journey westward.

With the usual delays of railroad travel, he arrived at Indianapolis in time to meet his engagement, wrote immediately home assuring his wife of his safe arrival, and leaving a blank spot in his letter to indicate the place where he had deposited a kiss for her, was soon absorbed in his business affairs.

Two days passed quickly, and on the evening of the third he was congratulating himself on his success and how glad his young wife would be to hear of it.

After chatting awhile in the office of the hotel, he retired to his room, happy at his success and his heart full of love. He sang a few staves of a song, and scarcely had the last words left his lips when, after knocking politely at his door, the porter entered with a telegraphic message. Fearing that something might have happened at home to make it necessary to telegraph, he could hardly muster courage enough to break the seal. Visions of runaway horses, his wife dangerously injured, burglars robbing the house; every possible calamity passed before him. He took a sudden resolution, never under any circumstances, to leave home again. Tearing open the message he turned it, of course, upside down, turned it over, and read it and was a most astonished man.

His brain began to whirl. Could he have been duped? Had the being who possessed all the love man is capable of yielding up to the one whom he idolizes practiced deception upon him?

It was as follows:

NEW YORK, June, 1867.

TO CHARLES FITZGERALD, Indianapolis:

Your wife sick; had a child yesterday; doing well to-day; don't be alarmed.

MRS. BROWNE, Nurse,
9872 Fifth avenue.

His name was Fitzgerald, and, when at home, he lived at 9872 Fifth Avenue.

Perfect and devoted as his love had been he was alarmed. He knew nothing of such an event likely to occur; he felt deceived and alarmed.

Silently gazing for a moment into the vacant air, as if he saw the form and face of his wife supplicating for forgiveness, Mr. Fitzgerald was conscious of a small hurricane arising within him. Hastily packing his trunk, he rushed down stairs, paid his bills, and demanded to be sent to the depot at once.

The clerk had told him that no train left for some hours, but he did not hear him. The hours passed tediously away, and it seemed to him a week before the train started and he was homeward bound with a heavier heart.

Between Albany and New York he fell asleep, had horrible dreams of wet nurses, baby wagons, doctor's bills, tin whistles, Godfrey's cordial, all danced in their respective turns before him.

At last he reached New York and jumping into a hack, vociferated in a very decided and tragic manner to the John, "Home!"

"Can't drive you home, unless you tell me where you live," answered the unterrified whip.

"Then drive to 9872 Fifth Avenue. Quick!"

In a few moments he was in front of his home; mounting the front steps the bell received a jerk which brought the servant from the kitchen without much delay.

"Susy," he said, rudely seizing her by the arm, and striking an attitude very Forrestian, "how is Mrs. Fitzgerald?"

"She is better this morning, but I guess she didn't expect you home so quick," replied Susie.

"No, I suppose not, and that is the very reason why I came," replied he, and in preface to his further questions, he crept softly up to his wife's room.

Mounting directly to his wife's room, and knocking on the door for admittance, a strange voice squeaked out—

"Who's there?"

"It's me," he replied.

"Who's me," replied the voice with the squeak.

"Charles Fitzgerald, and I want to come in at once," he replied, getting somewhat worked up at the idea of being kept out.

"You can't come in just now," said the squeaky voice; "I'll let you in in a minute."

Charles Fitzgerald felt very bad and very much abused just then. The telegraph was right, here was Mrs. Brown, nurse, with a vengeance.

His ear was applied to the keyhole, but no infantile sounds were heard, and he was fast losing his temper, when Mrs. Brown opened the door.

Entering the room hastily he was about to rush to the bedside to embrace his little wife, when he thought of her deception, and approached with great dignity and reserve, looking upon her as man looks upon a fallen idol, and simply said—

"Madame, I hope you are better this morning. I was very much surprised to hear from you by telegraph?"

"My dear Charles," replied the young wife, tears filling her deep blue eyes, "why do you treat me so coldly? Are you not glad to see me?"

"Madame," he replied, "does not your own conscience tell you that you deserve no show of affection from me? Have you not deceived me?"

Deceived you, Charles, I deceive you! Why, I—I don't understand you. What do you mean?" she groaned.

"Yes, deceived me," replied Charles. "You did not tell me of this before I left home."

"Tell you what?" replied Bessie amazed. "I did not know that I would be sick, and could not have known it. Dr. Williams says I can sit up to-morrow."

"And you did not mean to deceive me, Bessie?" replied Charles, with all his old affection returning.

"Certainly not. And now, Charles, do give me one kiss, and then tell me what all this excitement means."

"Yes, yes, Bessie; a dozen of them—here they are. And now, Bessie, show me that baby!"

"The baby? Why, Charles Fitzgerald! are you crazy? The baby—what baby?"

Come, Bessie, don't tantalize me—show me that baby!" and as he waited a response, he heard a stifled laugh, and turning around, beheld Mrs. Brown, nurse, engaged in stuffing her apron down her throat, in which operation she would have finally succeeded, had not Mr. Fitzgerald interfered with her design.

Bessie also caught a fit of violent laughter, and Fitzgerald stood between these two laughing women scarcely sure of his own identity. After they had quietted somewhat, he ventured to remark that it might be very amusing to them, but exceedingly unpleasant to him.

"Ladies," said he, "if you will be kind enough to show me that baby, I will join in your fun too."

"Why, Charles," said Bessie, "what ails you? I've got no baby. Never dreamed of such a thing!"

"Thunder and Mars," cried Fitzgerald, "you've got no baby! Mrs. Brown, look you here. Did you not send a message by telegraph to me, saying that my wife was sick and had a child, and for me not to be alarmed?"

"My good gracious," replied Mrs. Brown, "I did telegraph you that your wife was sick, and so she is. She has fever now—I said she had a chill not a child."

The truth broke upon Fitzgerald's mind at once. It was the telegraph that had made a mistake and caused all the trouble and confusion. The last "l" of the word "chill" had been changed by the convulsive shudder of some miserable repeater into a "d," and a chill became a child. Unlike Midwifer he was not a father, nor any other man.

Bessie, with an arch smile, looked up lovingly into his face and roguishly said, "Charlie, wait!"

Charley, in the fulness of his joy, could only say "I will." But he decided, in the meantime, to lay in a claim for damages against the telegraph company which had so rudely disturbed his dreams of parental bliss.

DOMESTIC RECEIPTS.—Canary birds are sometimes covered with lice, which cause ill health and sometimes death. They can be effectually relieved of them by placing a clean white cloth over their cage at night. In the morning it will be covered by small red spots, so small as hardly to be seen, except by the aid of a glass; these are the lice, a source of great annoyance to birds.

A cellar which opens inside a dwelling should be kept faultlessly clean all the year round as any other part of the house, because its atmosphere is constantly ascending, and impregnates every room in the house with its own odors. In reality, there ought not to be any cellar under any dwelling.

Squeaking boots or shoes are a great annoyance, especially in entering a sick room or a church after the service has commenced; the remedy is to boil linseed oil and saturate the soles with the same.

Blistered hands and feet; the speediest remedy is to light a tallow candle and let the melted tallow drop in cold water, then mix the tallow with strong spirits and rub it thoroughly into the palms or soles; this is both a preventive and curative.

Food.—The most easily digested articles of food, as yet known, are sweet apples baked, cold raw cabbage sliced in vinegar, and boiled rice; the most indigestible are suet, boiled cabbage and pork; the former requires an hour the latter five.

Graham bread.—Take the unbolted flour of wheat, wet it with lukewarm water, add salt and yeast, knead in enough more of this flour to make it stiff, add a little molasses, and, when risen, bake in medium sized loaves.

Kettles are cleansed of onion and other odors, by dissolving a teaspoonful of pearlash or saleratus in water, and washing them.

Hair, removed by lovers and other sickness, is made to grow by washing the scalp with a strong decoction of sage leaves once or twice a day.

Rich cheese feels softer under the pressure of the finger. That which is very strong is neither very good nor healthy. To keep one that is cut, tie it up in a bag that will not admit flies, and hang in a dry, cool place. If mould appears on it wipe it off with a dry cloth.

WHY is a leaky barrel like a coward? Because it runs.

LEWIS & LINDSAY.

No. The Globe is the sworn political enemy of all disorganizers inside or outside of any "ring" or combination, secret or open.

☞ If the members of the disorganizers' "ring" refuse to sign a paper denying that they are members of a secret political society, would it not be considered pretty strong evidence that they are members of such a society? That is just the "situation."

☞ Theo. H. Cremer charges that the Republican Convention was controlled by fraud, bargain and sale, because it did not nominate him and defeat somebody else. Does Mr. Cremer deny having promised to give a delegate money? Who tried to buy a nomination?

☞ The disorganizers dispute the right of a county committee to remove or appoint a chairman. A county committee is the recognized head of a party organization and as such has a right to remove any man from the committee who is not willing to act with and for the success of the party, and fill his place with a better man.

☞ The Democrats are assured by the disorganizers that they will exercise enough influence with Republicans in the county to defeat a portion of the Republican ticket, if they, the Democrats, will nominate a ticket.—The Democrats will not be slow to accept such an opening if they can see it. It would not be the first time the same disorganizers deceived the Democrats.

☞ Cremer don't like to hear himself and political compatriots called disorganizers. Pray, what else are they. Are they not trying to disorganize the party and to defeat five good party Republicans placed in nomination by a Republican County Convention? Of course they are disorganizers, and very mean ones at that.

☞ We might as well, as a party paper, open our columns to Democratic candidates as to open them for the use of the guerrilla candidates. Both would expect to use our columns to promote their political interests to the injury of the candidates it is our duty as a party paper to support. Because a man may claim to be a Republican, should not give him a right to claim the use of our columns to defeat our ticket. Guerrillas and disorganizers have no political rights within a party organization. They are outside as soon as they refuse to support party nominations. They cannot remain in the party even by toleration.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE.—The meeting at the Court House on Wednesday last, of committee men appointed in accordance with a resolution of the Republican County Convention, was larger than we expected to see, because we know that efforts had been made by the disorganizers to keep committee men away. Some thirty Committee men were present, within six as many as attended the meeting of "My Committee." Those present were pure—disorganizers had no business there. The new Chairman will soon be able to fill the Committee with men properly appointed and who will be true to the party. Delegates to the August Convention are expected to send him the names of gentlemen they wish to serve as committee men for their districts.

"The Republican."

The new paper—the disorganizers' organ—the mouth-piece of small potato Andy Johnsonism—has made its appearance with Theo. H. Cremer as Editor and Publisher. The paper is published at Mt. Union and Huntingdon. "The Republican" is only Republican in name—not in party or principle.—It supports but a part of the County and District ticket. It cuts Swoope, Fouse, Lambertson, M'K. Williamson, and Richardson, five life-long Republicans, and supports McCoy, Smucker, Lytle and Green. It supports these men because the "ring" had no objections to them before they were nominated, and opposes the other gentlemen on the ticket because the "ring" was opposed to them before they were nominated. Mr. Cremer, after holding office for twelve years, wanted to get in again, but was defeated by a wounded soldier and a worthy and competent man. He is not willing to submit to nominations he does not like, and he is foolish enough to believe that he can deceive enough Republicans to give the victory to the Democratic candidates to be nominated in a few days. He names his paper "The Republican"! That's stealing the livery of Heaven to serve the devil in.—And he asserts that he circulates 2500 copies of his Republican. That number costs more money than subscribers will ever pay, or the "ring" will ever contribute, and the only conclusion any man can come to is, that the Packer fund or Government plunder must pay expenses—to do what? to disorganize and defeat the Republican party in the county and district, and perhaps in the State. We are sorry to say it—Scott, Dorris, B. X. Blair, and others, helped to start Cremer's guerilla sheet. True Republicans of the county, watch the disorganizers, and do not permit them to poison your township organizations.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Last year when Mr. Weaver was Chairman of the Republican County Committee, an attempt was made to pack it for him, but he took the responsibility and placed upon the Committee all names sent him by delegates, and where they failed to give him names he selected committee men himself. The Committee was a good one and all worked in harmony for the success of the ticket, but Mr. Weaver did not fail being denounced by the "ring" as a Woods' man—and why? Because he would not be controlled by men who wanted to defeat Sheriff Nesly, and who packed Logan's Committee, and now want to defeat five gentlemen nominated by the late Republican Convention. Last year, with a true Republican as Chairman, the disorganizers could not get a foothold for mischief, but with Logan they have been able to start an Andy Johnson organization and an Andy Johnson organ. Last year by this time in the campaign the Republican party was working for success—now, Logan's Committee is working to defeat the party. Thanks to the committee men who met in the Court House on Wednesday last, for the firm stand they have taken to save our party from defeat. The Chairman they selected has brains—honest Republican brains, and can't be influenced by the disorganizers to do anything to defeat the Republican ticket.

☞ If the disorganizers were always honest in their opposition to secret political organizations, why is it that the fight was not made months ago, so that the people could have had the "light" when they elected their delegates. Before that time the "ring" which for years controlled nominating conventions still hoped to be able to rule, but failing, they are now determined to ruin. If there is a secret political organization in the county, we believe some at least of the leaders of the disorganizers are prominent members of it. The secret political society excitement is only used as a hobby by personal enemies of rising men to injure them. If Theo. H. Cremer had been nominated at the late Convention does any sane man suppose he would be publishing a guerilla sheet to-day? Not a bit of it. The nominations would have been all right, and he would have worked for the success of the party. But he was not nominated, and because he was not nominated he is willing to join hands with other traitors to the Republican party to destroy it. There is nothing in the secret political society fuss to frighten us from our duty to our party and its ticket. After the election is over will be time enough to hunt for ghosts.

☞ The vote in "My Committee" on the motion to nominate a new ticket stood 50 nays to 16 yeas. The disorganizers organ says that if Birmingham, Warriorsmark, Franklin, Morris and Jackson had been represented the majority would probably been on the other side, and a new ticket would have been put up—probably Mr. Cremer for Prothonotary. What a misfortune it was for Mr. Cremer that those townships didn't come up to the scratch. But who has authorized Mr. Cremer to say that the Republican townships named would have proved false to party nominations?—Were committee men selected in those townships to do the bidding of disorganizers?

"The old woman's peddler is again at work,"—this time as a disorganizer of the Republican party.

"My Committee."

We wish every Republican in the county could have been in the Court House on Wednesday last when M. M. Logan, Chairman of "My Committee," was speaking to members of the Republican County Committee he refused to recognize as Committee men. He did not speak of the Committee over which he presides as the Republican County Committee—no—it was "My Committee"—M. M. Logan's Committee—packed for him by his "ring" of disorganizers. If ever M. M. Logan felt mean and dirty it was then, when even the boys in the Court Room laughed at his impudence. "My Committee"—a Committee intended to represent and speak for the Republican party of the county to be known only as "My Committee." Why, Mr. Logan must think, that some men are only dogs, and that "My Committee" are a pack of dogs to do his bidding—or rather the bidding of the men who are using him. "MY Committee"—white men, "MY Committee," to do my dirty work, and the work the Chairman of "my Committee" has agreed for a price to have done. The Republican party of the county have now properly organized a Republican County Committee with a reliable Republican, Mr. D. M. PAINTER, as Chairman, and "my Committee" can attend exclusively to the interests of the "ring," or secret society of disorganizers. "My Committee" is not the Committee appointed by the Delegates who unfortunately for Mr. Logan elected him Chairman. But as he has repudiated the party, it was very proper for the Republican County Committee on Wednesday last to repudiate him and put in his place an honest party man.

☞ Mr. Cremer attempts to justify his, and the course of his associate disorganizers, by referring to our course when we defended Andy Johnson in his attempt to disorganize the Republican party. We were wrong then—so said Cremer, Scott, Dorris, and the whole "ring." We are right now, fighting for the Republican organization and its ticket. But where do we find the "ring"—the gentlemen who were true party men then? We find them in our old shoes playing disorganizers. What we were then Cremer & Co. are now—nothing more, nothing less. How do you like our cast-off shoes, say? If the Democrats would be willing to take you we would offer you to them cheap.

☞ We understand that Chairman Logan has selected speakers to travel the county to enlighten the voters as to their duties in the present campaign. The voters should know that Mr. Logan is no longer Chairman of the Co. Committee—he is only Chairman of "My Committee" packed by the ring of disorganizers. D. M. Painter is Chairman of the Republican County Committee, and we can assure the voters that he will not select any man to speak at public meetings who will not pledge his support to the whole ticket. We hope all disorganizers will be sent home with a mighty big flea in their ear.

WHAT IMPUDENCE. — Mr. Cremer thinks the delegates who voted against him were bought, or influenced against him by a secret order. Does he know that the Republicans of the county think he has had a full share of office. He is certainly old enough to know that there are many other men in the county at least as worthy of holding office as he is. There was no combination to nominate you, was there, Mr. Cremer? Your caucussing with the "ring" was for another purpose—perhaps. Perhaps to discuss the quality of your ——well that's your business. Our Early Rose rotted.

☞ We can hear of but very little dissatisfaction in the party in any part of the county with the Republican ticket. Not more than we have heard in former years. There always will be somebody disappointed; but if the party is to continue successful, the minority must submit to the will of the majority. To disorganize and defeat a ticket one year, will disorganize and defeat the ticket for years after. We don't believe that the guerilla Republican, or the "ring" of disorganizers can influence the Republicans of this county to defeat their party organization and their ticket.

☞ Theo. H. Cremer says we now "worship a little king in the woods." Why not speak out plain and say we are a warm friend of Wm. H. Woods. We are not ashamed of the company we keep. We know Mr. Woods to be an earnest and true Republican—a sober, industrious, honest man, and a hard worker for the success of Republican nominees. He does not wait to work for himself—he works for the ticket no matter who may be nominated. W. H. Woods is too well known to be struck down by a gang of Andy Johnson disorganizers.

☞ Henry A. Mark of Juniata township, defeated for County Auditor in the late Republican Convention is a disorganizer and one of the packed Committee. He wants the Democrats to put up a ticket that he may have somebody to vote for. Henry is always on hand for an office. He would not refuse a nomination for any office, from President down to a township Post Master.

☞ We think the "Literati" expose is likely to go a little further than was intended by a number of the leading disorganizers. We are now collecting names of the most prominent men said to have been sworn in, and all with a few exceptions are disorganizers. But we suppose they agreed in secret caucus to try to escape the wrath of the people by trying to fasten the secret society upon Woods and his friends. We shall see what we shall see—as the fight now stands the disorganizers are in very muddy water.

☞ Theo. H. Cremer, ever since he left the last office he held in the county, has not been known by the working men of the party. He has been an old fogy in politics for some years—never having time or the inclination to work very hard for the success of anybody but himself. He has now turned up again—getting hungry for another office—and by the time he gets through reforming the Republican party we think he will have earned what he will get—a back seat with others of the "ring."

☞ The editor of the Globe clung to Andrew Johnson and fell with him to the same low depth.—Cremer's Republican.

Admitted. We fell out of the party with Johnson but recovered with Gen. Grant on a more liberal platform, and now you, Mr. Cremer, and your "ring" of associate disorganizers, are doing just what caused our fall three years ago. Our fall should have been a warning for you for the balance of your short life, but your disappointment in not getting more political bones to pick has made you desperate and you are willing to try your hand at breaking up the Republican party. You and all who are deceived by you will land just where we did, outside of the Republican party, and then you'll have a time getting back into good standing with the party.

Death of General Rawlins.

The death of General JOHN A. RAWLINS, the Secretary of War, will be received throughout the Republic with deep sorrow. It took place at 4 o'clock and 12 minutes on Monday afternoon, the 6th inst. His disease was hemorrhage of the lungs, with which he was taken down two or three months ago, the foundation of which was laid during his exposure in the war, in which he was actively engaged for over four years. He was only thirty-nine years of age, being the youngest man who ever occupied a seat in the cabinet. He was a native and citizen of Illinois. He was a graduate of West-Point, and entered the army in March, 1861. He was soon made a brigadier-general of volunteers, then major-general, also major-general by brevet in the regular army. His military record was brilliant and memorable. GRANT soon saw his worth and placed him at the head of his personal staff. A short time after General GRANT was inaugurated as President he called RAWLINS to the head of the War Department, having the utmost confidence in his ability, industry and faithfulness. He did not belie this confidence. On the contrary the President saw more and more in him to challenge the friendship and affection entertained for him. He was brave and prescient, and never shirked a duty or failed in the performance of it. Indeed there are few men the President could afford to lose both in a personal and an official sense.

The President was at Saratoga when he was informed of the critical condition of his friend and cabinet minister, and he lost no time in setting out for the capital. He left Saratoga at 5:40 P. M., and traveling all night, reached Washington at five o'clock Monday afternoon, too late to find his comrade and friend alive.

On the day before his death, the General made his will, was baptized by Rev. Mr. WILSON, of the Methodist Episcopal church, and partook of the sacrament. His wife is in Connecticut where she is sick and unable to travel. Only a few days before, too, she lost her infant, the burial of which could not be attended by its father.

His death-bed is represented to have been most solemn, surrounded as it was by the members of the cabinet, and other high officers of the Government, and personal friends. His sudden and unexpected death is a severe loss in a public and private sense, and especially in a public and private sense, and especially in the domestic circle, and his memory will be cherished as long as true patriotism, a dauntless spirit and an honest heart are classed among the virtues of man.

Ex-Secretary Stanton and his family are at Wolfsborough, Vt. Mr. Stanton, says a correspondent, "is but a shadow of his former self. He rests quietly upon the piazza, watching his children at their play, a contrast to the vivacity of the other guests, or he walks now and then slowly, sometimes with assistance. He is thin and pale, and in low, feeble tones responds to the cordial greeting of others. But his smile is as pleasant as ever. His gentle wife attends him always."

Mrs. Catharine Washington died in Delhi township, Harrison county, Ohio, Saturday morning, aged eighty years. It is claimed she was a relative of President Washington. Her maiden name was Washington, and she married a man named Washington. She was born and was married on the Washington estate in Culpeper county, Virginia. She leaves two sons bearing the name of Washington.

When Asa Packer was a Representative in Congress the vote on the bill to admit Kansas stood 100 yeas to 97 nays. Asa Packer voted no with the pro-slavery politicians of the South.

The Berks county Democracy are divided into at least a dozen little factions. Every prominent politician of that party in the county heads a different division.

The Democrats have nominated for Treasurer of Luzerne county a man who can neither read nor write.

Also, that in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to executions and for other purposes," approved April 16th, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section "shall not be so construed as to prevent any militia or borough officer from serving as judge, or inspector or clerk of any general or special election in this Commonwealth."
By the act of Assembly of 1869, known as the Registry Law, it is provided as follows:
1. "Election Officers are to open the polls between the hours of six and seven, A. M., on the day of election—Before six o'clock in the morning of second Tuesday of October they are to receive from the County Commissioners the Registered List of Voters and all necessary election blanks, and they are to permit no man to vote whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote as follows:

The person whose name is not on the list, claiming the right to vote must produce a qualified voter of the district to swear in a written or printed affidavit to the residence of the claimant in the district for at least ten days next preceding said election, defining clearly where the residence of the person was.
3. 4. If the applicant be a naturalized citizen, he must, in addition to the foregoing proofs, state in his affidavit when, where, and by what court he was naturalized and produce his certificate of naturalization.
5. Every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen, whether on the registry list, or producing affidavits as aforesaid, shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for two years consecutively a voter in the district where he offers to vote, and on the vote of such a person being received, the Election Officers are to write or stamp the word "voted" on his certificate with the month and year, and no other vote can be cast that day, in virtue of said certificate except where some one entitled to vote upon the naturalization of their father.
6. If the person claiming to vote who is not registered shall make an affidavit that he is a native born citizen of the United States, or, if born elsewhere, shall produce evidence of his naturalization, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization, and further, that he is between 21 and 22 years of age, and has resided in the State one year, and in the election district ten days next preceding said election, he shall be entitled to vote though he shall not have paid taxes."
In accordance with the provision of the 6th section of an act entitled "A further supplement to the election Laws of this Commonwealth," I publish the following:
WHEREAS, By the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out of the national forces, and for other purposes," approved March 3d, 1865, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged or relieved from the penalty or disability therein provided, are deemed and taken to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof;
And whereas, Persons not citizens of the United States are not, under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania, qualified electors of this Commonwealth.
SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions and subject to the disability imposed by the said act of Congress, approved 3d, 1865, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot or ballots.
SEC. 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive or consent to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, he shall for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than sixty days.
SEC. 3. That if any person shall hereafter personate or advise any person or persons, deprived of citizenship or disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall personate, or advise, any such officer to receive such ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as provided in the second section of this act in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.
Particular attention is directed to the first section of the Act of Assembly, passed the 30th day of March A. D. 1866, entitled "An Act regulating the manner of Voting at all Elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth:"
"That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby, hereafter, authorized and required to vote, by tickets, printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and be labelled outside "judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace all the names of State officers voted for, and be labelled "State;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of Senator, member, and members of Assembly, if voted for, and members of Congress, if voted for, and labelled "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled "borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes.
Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 67th section of the act aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or returns of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one of the judges from each district at the Court House, in the borough of Huntingdon, on the third day after the day of election, being for the present year on Friday, the 6th of November next, then and there to do and perform the duties required by law of said judges.
Also, that where a judge by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken in charge by one of the inspectors or clerks of the election of said district; and shall do and perform the duties required of said judge unable to attend.
Also, that in the 61st section of said act it is enacted that "every general and special election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon; and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clk. in the evening, when the polls shall be closed."

The first Annual Exhibition of the Altoona Park Association, at Altoona, Pa, will be held September 28th, 29th and 30th, and October 1st, 1869. The Premium List foots up $2,750. On stock, the premiums range from $5 to $50, according to grade and quality. On manufactured articles, cereals and vegetable, the premiums are equal to those of the State Agricultural Society, while $1,050 will be awarded to owners of fast horses, including one premium of $500 to the fastest trotter —mile heats—best three in five.— There is an excellent half mile course, forty feet wide, and of easy grade, within the Park. There will be a grand Fireman's Parade and a trial of Steam Fire Engines, for a purse of $25 on Thursday, September 30th. Also, slow time, and velocipede races, and a race between a fast horse and a steam velocipede. All entries, except horses entered for speed, ARE FREE, and competition open to all parts of this and other States. Excursion Tickets will be issued from all stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and all stock or articles shipped over the road named, on which full fare, to Altoona, has been paid, will be returned FREE OF CHARGE. Any further information desired, may be had by addressing E. B. McCrum, Secretary of the Association, at Altoona.

☞ Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher writes to the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company: "More than two-thirds of all the sewing done in my family for the last two years has been done by Grover & Baker's Machine, and I have never had a garment rip or need mending, except those rents which frolicsome boys will make in whole cloth. It is, in my opinion, by far the most valuable of any I have tried."

☞ Wm. B. Zeigler has just returned from the city, where he has purchased large quantities of goods as addition to his former stock. Also, a full assortment of fine Family Groceries, all of which are now offered for sale very cheap.

☞ Farmers, go to McLanahan, Stone & Isett, of Hollidaysburg, and buy your Agricultural Implements, for they have the best assortment of agricultural implements in the State. je16-5m

A Living Rat in the Stomach.

The Altoona Tribune says: We called at the house of Mr. James H. Mann residing on Emma street, on Monday evening last, to witness a live rat which had been ejected from the stomach of a little boy, about five years of age, the son of Mrs. Sarah Rogers. The little fellow, as stated by the mother, had been playing around the yard, when feeling no doubt uncomfortable, he came to his mother and displayed restlessness and sickness, with frequent evidences of strangulation, exciting the mother's fears that something serious was about to transpire. After great exertion, he threw up, to all intents and purposes, an actual living rat, which, so far as the mother could tell, might have been swallowed by the boy, but in what way or manner will perhaps remain forever a mystery. The rat could not have been, from all appearances, more than three or four days old, as it was entirely hairless—measuring, as near as we could judge—not having a rule at hand—an inch and a half in length, alive and kicking. A number of our citizens have been called in, in order to determine its paternity and the circumstances connected with the strange occurrence.

A Card.

In view of the increased tendency of public amusements in our community, in the form of dances, with their usual demoralizing accompaniments; and in view of the danger of drawing away unestablished and weak christians from their obligations to their Lord Jesus Christ: We the pastors of the Evangelical churches residing in Huntingdon, unite in entering our solemn protest against the participation therein by the members of our several churches, and earnestly call upon them in the name of the Lord to exert their influence by precept and example over those within their reach; and that they fervently pray that God may grant us deliverance from all love of the sinful pleasures of this world, which are ruinous to the soul, remembering that God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap; whosoever soweth to the flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption.

William Penn's old family carriage has come into the possession of the Michigan Central Railroad. The relic is over one hundred and sixty years old. A gentleman of Jackson, Michigan, either purchased or fell heir to it, but on arrival he failed to pay express charges, and so the company took possession in default. It is one of the most interesting relics in the country. Would it not be well for some of our city or State authorities to endeavor to get possession of it?

In New Jersey they have had no peach crop equal to that of the present season since 1865. In 1866 the crop was very fair. In 1867 there was a good yield. In 1868 the crop was almost a complete failure. It is believed that the crop of the year will exceed that of 1867 by 500,000 baskets, reaching the aggregate of 3,000,000 baskets. Some dealers estimate as high as 4,000,000.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deservedly upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a protection against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.
